

EARLIER WORK

Honor Code Definitions II. C. (3)

Offering for course credit one's own work, but work that one has previously offered for course credit in another course, unless one secures permission to do so prior to submission from the instructor in whose course the work is being offered.

SEMESTER	OFFENSE	FACULTY OR HONOR COUNCIL DECISION	SANCTION
Fall 2020	None.
Summer 2020	None.
Spring 2020	Without the permission of the professor, Student submitted for credit in English an essay containing passages taken from a work the student completed in high school.	Faculty	Required to rewrite the essay on a new topic for 50% credit.
Spring 2020	Student submitted for credit in Social Work, without the permission of the professor, five feedback reflections copied from work student submitted for credit in the same course during an earlier semester.	Faculty	Given a warning and asked to rewrite and resubmit the 5 assignments.
Spring 2020	Student submitted a paper for credit in Social Work that student had submitted earlier for credit in another course.	Faculty	Given the opportunity to rewrite the paper for partial credit.
Spring 2020	Student submitted the same paper for credit in two different courses in Communication without the permission of either professor.	Faculty	Was required to produce a new paper for each course of "A" quality to avoid an "F" for both papers. Each paper ultimately received a grade of "F".
Fall 2019	Without the permission of the professor, student submitted for credit in Baylor Interdisciplinary Core a journal entry 73% of which was taken from a paper student had written in high school.	Faculty	Received a "0" for the assignment.
Fall 2019	Without the permission of the professor, student submitted for credit in Teacher Education an assignment student had submitted for credit during an earlier semester in the same course. In order to fit the criteria for the new assignment, student altered the earlier assignment by falsely stating that a book described in the earlier assignment as a "Level H reader" was now a "Level F reader."	Faculty	Received a "0" for the assignment.
Fall 2019	Student submitted for credit in English a paper 91% of which was copied from a paper student had	Faculty	Was allowed to rewrite the paper for 50 % credit.

EARLIER WORK

Honor Code Definitions II. C. (3)

Offering for course credit one's own work, but work that one has previously offered for course credit in another course, unless one secures permission to do so prior to submission from the instructor in whose course the work is being offered.

	submitted for credit in a previous class at Baylor.
Fall 2019	Without the permission of the professor, student submitted for credit in Curriculum and Instruction a paper containing passages taken from work that student had submitted for credit when taking two courses in earlier semesters.	Honor Council (2 nd Violation – Automatic referral)	Pending
Fall 2019	Without the permission of the professor, student submitted for credit in English a paper significant portions of which were taken from a paper student had submitted for credit in a course at another university.	Faculty	Required to write a new paper for 50% of its value.
Summer 2019	None.
Spring 2019	Without the permission of the professor, student submitted for credit in Sociology a paper containing a portion taken from a paper the student had written earlier for another class.	Faculty	Received a reduced grade for the paper.
Spring 2019	Student, without the permission of the professor, submitted an argumentative essay for credit in English containing passages taken from a project student wrote in high school.	Faculty	Received an "F" for the essay but allowed to revise the problematic sections and resubmit the essay for an averaged grade of the two.
Fall 2018	Without the permission of the professor, student submitted for credit in Music a paper that was substantially the same as a paper student submitted for credit in Music while taking it during an earlier semester.	Faculty	Received 10 out of a possible 25 points for the paper.
Fall 2018	Without the permission of the professor, student submitted for credit in Leadership Development a paper containing large portions copied from a paper she submitted for credit in English during a previous semester.	Faculty	Received a 60% deduction from the score for the paper.
Fall 2018	Student submitted for credit in Music a report that student had submitted previously in the same course for credit for another assignment.	Faculty	Received a "0" for both reports.
Fall 2018	Without the permission of the professor, student	Honor	Received an "F" for the course.

EARLIER WORK

Honor Code Definitions II. C. (3)

Offering for course credit one's own work, but work that one has previously offered for course credit in another course, unless one secures permission to do so prior to submission from the instructor in whose course the work is being offered.

	submitted for credit in LDS 1301 the final e-portfolio containing posts submitted for credit in a class student took in Fall 2017.	Council
Fall 2018	Without the permission of the professor, student submitted eight weekly lab reports for credit in Mechanical Engineering containing work that student had previously submitted for credit in ME during the Spring 2018 semester. The work submitted also contained work of other students who took ME during the Spring 2018 semester.	Honor Council	Received a "0" for each of the 8 lab reports.
Summer 2018	Without the permission of the professor, student submitted for credit in Chemistry an almost word-for-word copy of work student had submitted for credit during an earlier semester.	Honor Council	Received an "F" for the course.
Spring 2018	Student submitted for credit in Baylor Interdisciplinary Core a research essay containing passages taken from the work of another and from student's own work submitted in a prior class for credit without properly identifying said passages, crediting the original author(s), or obtaining the professor's permission to use student's prior work.	Faculty	Received half credit for the final essay.
Spring 2018	Without the permission of either professor, student submitted for credit in one Environmental Science course a research paper that student had also submitted for credit in another Environmental Science course..	Faculty	May rewrite the paper for the second course with significant point deduction. Also received significant point deduction for the paper in the first course.
Fall 2017	Student submitted for credit in English an essay containing passages taken from online sources without properly identifying said passages or crediting the original author(s). In addition, student took said passages from an essay student had previously submitted for credit in high school.	Faculty	Received a "0" for the essay. Student will rewrite the essay and, after consulting with a tutor at the Writing Center, will resubmit the essay on the last day of class. The grade for the revised essay will be averaged with the initial "0" to determine the final grade for the essay.
Fall 2017	Submitted an earlier work for credit.	Faculty	Was allowed to write a different paper for a 20% grade deduction on the paper.

EARLIER WORK

Honor Code Definitions II. C. (3)

Offering for course credit one's own work, but work that one has previously offered for course credit in another course, unless one secures permission to do so prior to submission from the instructor in whose course the work is being offered.

Summer 2017	None.
Spring 2017	Student submitted an assignment for credit in Strategic Learning that was the same as one the student had submitted for credit the previous semester.	Faculty	Received an "F" for the course.
Fall 2016	Student submitted a paper for credit in English which was substantially the same as a paper student submitted for course credit in a history class earlier in the year, and student had not secured permission to do so from the instructor prior to submission.	Faculty	Required to rewrite the paper with a deduction on the grade.
Fall 2016	Student submitted for credit in Mechanical Engineering a group report which was copied in whole or in part from a group report completed for the same class the prior year by a group of which student was a part. This was done without the permission of the professor. In addition, when questioned by the professor as to how the two works matched so closely, student lied about the actions.	Faculty	Received a "0" for the project.
Summer 2016	None.
Spring 2016	Student submitted an essay for credit in English, parts of which student had previously submitted for course credit in high school, and student had not secured permission to do so from the instructor prior to submission.	Faculty	Received an "F" for the essay with a chance to re-write and re-submit a new essay on a different topic.
Spring 2016	While taking the course for the second time, student submitted discussion answers from the prior semester's course for credit in Business and student had not secured permission from the instructor prior to submission. In addition, without permission, student used solutions for downloaded quizzes from the prior semester to answer questions on quizzes during the Spring 2016	Faculty	Received an "F" for the course.

EARLIER WORK

Honor Code Definitions II. C. (3)

Offering for course credit one's own work, but work that one has previously offered for course credit in another course, unless one secures permission to do so prior to submission from the instructor in whose course the work is being offered.

	semester in Business.
Fall 2015	Student submitted a paper for course credit in Human Performance which student had previously submitted for course credit in Educational Psychology, and student had not secured permission to do so from the instructor of Human Performance prior to submission.	Faculty	Received an "F" for the assignment. All future assignments for this course submitted through Turnitin.com to ensure authenticity of work.
Summer 2015	None.
Spring 2015	None.
Fall 2014	Without permission from the instructor to do so, student submitted for credit in Family and Consumer Sciences a paper student had submitted when taking the same course in a previous semester.	Faculty	Given the opportunity to rewrite the paper.
Fall 2014	Student submitted a paper for credit in Family and Consumer Sciences which was a 64 % match to a paper student submitted for credit while taking the course during an earlier semester.	Faculty	Received a "0" for the paper.
Summer 2014	None.
Spring 2014	Student submitted an assignment for credit in Chemistry containing answers student copied from an assignment submitted for credit while taking the course during an earlier semester.	Honor Council	Received an "F" for the assignment.
Fall 2013	None.
Summer 2013	None.
Spring 2013	Student submitted for course credit in Baylor Interdisciplinary Core a paper 40% of which student had previously submitted for course credit in another course, and student did not secure permission to do so from the instructor prior to submission.	Faculty	Received a letter grade deduction on the paper.
Spring 2013	Student submitted for credit in Theology a paper that student had previously submitted for course credit in another course. In addition, student failed	Faculty	Received a "0" on the assignment and an "F" in the course.

EARLIER WORK

Honor Code Definitions II. C. (3)

Offering for course credit one's own work, but work that one has previously offered for course credit in another course, unless one secures permission to do so prior to submission from the instructor in whose course the work is being offered.

	to submit paper on time, and when papers were returned to the class, student told the professor falsely that student had sent the paper by email earlier.
Fall 2012	Without the permission of the professor, student submitted for credit in Political Science a paper, portions of which were copied from a paper previously submitted for credit in another class.	Faculty	Received a deduction of 13% from the grade on the paper.
Summer 2012	None.
Spring 2012	Student submitted for credit in English a research paper that student had previously submitted for a grade when attending another school.	Faculty	Received an "F" for the paper.
Fall 2011	Without permission from the instructor to do so, student submitted for credit in Leadership Development a paper containing passages copied and pasted from work student had submitted earlier in the semester.	Faculty	Will be allowed to re-write the paper for a reduced grade.
Summer 2011	Student submitted for credit in Management a paper which student had previously submitted for credit in another Management course. In addition, when questioned by the professor, student lied about having submitted the paper in the earlier course.	Honor Council	Received an "F" for the course.
Spring 2011	None.
Fall 2010	None
Summer 2010	None
Spring 2010	Student submitted a project for credit in Accounting which student had completed with another student and submitted for course credit in a previous semester. Furthermore, collaboration with another student on the project was done without permission from the instructor and in violation of instructions given student by the professor for the current project.	Faculty	Received a "0" on the project.

EARLIER WORK

Honor Code Definitions II. C. (3)

Offering for course credit one's own work, but work that one has previously offered for course credit in another course, unless one secures permission to do so prior to submission from the instructor in whose course the work is being offered.

Fall 2009	Student submitted a paper for credit in Family and Consumer Sciences, substantial portions of which had been included in a paper written by student for a Fall 2008 class.	Faculty	Received a reduced grade on the paper.
Summer 2009	None.
Spring 2009	Student submitted a research paper for credit in Family and Consumer Sciences containing passages taken either word for word or in substance from the work of another without crediting the original author or properly identifying said passages (a 50% match on Turnitin.com). In addition, the paper contained passages taken from a paper student had written in a prior semester without the permission of the professor (a 43% match on Turnitin.com).	Faculty	Student was given the opportunity to rewrite the paper and submit it for a maximum grade of 75%.
Fall 2008	None.
Summer 2008	None.
Spring 2008	None
Fall 2007	Student submitted a paper for course credit in Social Work class which student had previously submitted for course credit in another Social Work class, and student had not secured permission to do so from the instructor of current class prior to submission.	Faculty	Received a "30" on the assignment.
Summer 2007	None.
Spring 2007	None.		