

OTHER
Honor Code Definitions II. C. (17)
 Other

SEMESTER	OFFENSE	FACULTY OR HONOR COUNCIL DECISION	SANCTION
Fall 2020	None.
Summer 2020	None.
Spring 2020	Student took pictures of an online exam in Mathematics and later attempted to sell the pictures to classmates. In addition, while in the exam, student disconnected from the Proctorio monitoring service to take the pictures, then lied to the professor, claiming technical difficulties, in order to be allowed back into the exam.	Faculty	Received a "0" for the exam.
Spring 2020	Student failed to submit the online final exam in Physics by more than 24 hours after the deadline given by the professor, and then requested to take a makeup exam, with no documentation of the reasons for the failure to submit the exam by the deadline .	Honor Council (2 nd Violation – Automatic referral)	Pending
Fall 2019	By completing a form requiring verification and presentation as a faculty member on the publisher's website, student requested an instructor copy of the textbook for Psychology.	Faculty	The textbook was not given to the student. The matter was reported to the Office of Academic Integrity.
Summer 2019	None.
Spring 2019	Results of a clicker quiz given in Biology indicated that student scored a 10/10 even though he was absent on the day the quiz was given.	Faculty	Received a "0" for the quiz.
Fall 2018	None.
Summer 2018	None.
Spring 2018	Student submitted in support of his appeal of academic dismissal a recording of a conversation with a professor made during the fall semester 2017 without the professor's knowledge or consent in violation of university	Honor Council	Pending – Student has not returned to Baylor

OTHER
Honor Code Definitions II. C. (17)
 Other

	policies.
Spring 2018	Student engaged in dishonorable conduct in connection with an academic matter when student posted work that you submitted for credit in Business during the Fall of 2016 to the website Course Hero without the permission of the professor, making said work available to other students to copy and submit for credit.	Honor Council	NOT GUILTY
Spring 2018	Student took an exam for credit in Psychology a large percentage of which contained answers for a different version of the exam.	Faculty	Received a "0" for the exam.
Fall 2017	During a quiz in Environmental Science, student was observed by the professor shielding student's face with a hand and whispering to another student.	Honor Council	NOT GUILTY
Fall 2017	Student was allowed to look at the second exam in Accounting, and, while doing so, took a picture of one of the pages of the exam.	Faculty	The incident was reported to the office of Academic Integrity.
Fall 2017	Student did not return student's lab sheet to the TA for Computer Science, but took it from the lab and allowed other student(s) to see the lab sheet prior to the exam.	Faculty	Received an "F" for the course.
Fall 2017	Student gave forbidden help to another student on a take-home problem for the final exam in Math.	Faculty	Received a "0" for each take-home problem.
Fall 2017	Student received forbidden help from another student on a take-home problem for the final exam in Math.	Honor Council (2 nd Violation – Automatic referral)	Received a "0" for each take-home problem. Suspended for one semester.
Summer 2017	None.
Spring 2017	Student was not present in Environmental Science but obtained the Tophat code and falsely recorded student's attendance in the class.	Faculty	Student will receive an "F" for the course if student does not choose to drop the course before grades are assigned.
Spring 2017	Student missed a lab in Biology and asked a	Faculty	Will receive an "F" for the course if student does not choose to

OTHER
Honor Code Definitions II. C. (17)
 Other

	classmate to complete and submit the worksheet for student with student's name on it.		drop the course before grades are assigned.
Spring 2017	In preparation for an exam in Nursing, student purchased and shared passcodes with another student for the quizzes accompanying the textbook in violation of the software license. In addition, student knew, or should have known, that such conduct was dishonorable and failed to report it as required by the Baylor University Honor Code.	Faculty	Conduct was reported to the software provider and to the Office of Academic Integrity.
Fall 2016	Student attended a Mathematics class for which student was not registered and took a test in the class without the permission of the professor. Student knew or should reasonably have known that such conduct could give student an unfair academic advantage because it provided student with access to academic content for which student had not paid. Additionally, it could give student an unfair academic advantage over other students if student was to take the class in the future.	Faculty	A report of the incident was filed with the Office of Academic Integrity.
Summer 2016	None.
Spring 2016	None
Fall 2015	Student provided answers to a graded assignment to other students who had not yet submitted their assignments for credit in Nutrition.	Faculty	The violation was reported to the Office of Academic Integrity.
Fall 2015	Student captured answers for a case study in Nutrition from another student who had already had the assignment graded and then shared the answers with a third student.	Faculty	Student's grade for the case study which would have helped the overall average will be dropped.
Summer 2015	None.
Spring 2015	Student supplied the class attendance code to	Faculty	Received a "0" on the quiz.

OTHER
Honor Code Definitions II. C. (17)
 Other

	another student who was not in attendance. The other student then was able to record attendance in class and complete the quiz given that day.
Fall 2014	While acting as a grader for Accounting, student gave another student grades of "100" on several problems for which the student did not submit answers.	Honor Council	Immediate suspension for two semesters. May not be employed at Baylor University.
Fall 2014	Student submitted several blank homework assignments for credit in Accounting with the understanding that the grader was to give student a grade of 100 on the work.	Faculty	Received an "F" for the class.
Summer 2014	None.
Spring 2014	None.
Fall 2013	None.
Summer 2013	None.
Spring 2013	None.
Fall 2012	In order to give student an unfair academic advantage in Chemistry, student used a "Groups at Baylor" Facebook page in an attempt to obtain completed course material from students who had previously taken the course.	Faculty	Received an "F" for the course for the semester.
Summer 2012	None.
Spring 2012	While completing a lab for credit in Chemistry student had in student's possession lab reports belonging to a student who had taken the lab in a previous semester. Student knew or should have known that this conduct would give student an unfair academic advantage on the assignment and that it was unauthorized by the professor.	Faculty	Received a warning from the professor.
Fall 2011	In violation of instructions given in the course syllabus, student used an online translator in completing an annotated bibliography in	Faculty	Received a "0" on the assignment.

OTHER
Honor Code Definitions II. C. (17)
 Other

	Spanish, giving student an unfair academic advantage on the assignment.
Fall 2011	Student used an online translator in completing the second composition in Spanish against the guidelines stated in the course syllabus thus giving student an unfair academic advantage on the assignment.	Faculty	Received a "0" for the assignment.
Summer 2011	None
Spring 2011	Student used an online translator in completing the final homework assignment and second composition in Spanish giving student an unfair academic advantage on the assignments.	Honor Council (2 nd Violation – Automatic referral)	Received a permanent "F" in the course.
Fall 2010	None
Summer 2010	Student supplied electronic copies of assignment (both exercises and source code) to another student in Computer Science.	Faculty	Received a reprimand.
Summer 2010	On numerous occasions student supplied complete electronic copies of assignments (both exercises and source codes) to another student in Computer Science.	Faculty	Retroactively received an "F" for the course.
Summer 2010	Student corrected one student's code for an assignment in Computer Science and then provided corrected code to another student in the class.	Faculty	Received a reprimand.
Summer 2010	In violation of the professor's prohibitions regarding collaboration of this type, student assisted another student in cheating in Computer Science by providing that student a copy of the project code. When this was discovered, student also lied to the professor by stating that the code had been taken without student's knowledge or consent.	Faculty	Received an "F" for course.
Summer 2010	Student suspected that another student was copying off of student's exam during a test in	Honor Council	Not Guilty.

OTHER
Honor Code Definitions II. C. (17)
 Other

	Psychology and failed to report that to the professor. In addition, student failed to adequately protect the exam so that the other student could not copy from it. In the alternative, student allowed the other student to copy answers from the exam.
Spring 2010	While acting as a teaching assistant, student gave two students grades which they did not earn in Math. In addition, during the fall semester of 2008, student gave one of these students a grade not earned in Math.	Honor Council	Graduation dependent on successful completion of Independent study with 3 faculty members to be completed by March 30, 2011. Failure to successfully complete the study will result in expulsion.
Spring 2010	Student submitted a lab report for another student so that student would receive academic credit in Electrical and Computer Engineering for the report. The other student had not attended the lab for which the report was submitted.	Faculty	Received a "0" for the lab report.
Fall 2009	During the Spring semester 2009, student engaged in dishonorable conduct in connection with academic matters when student, a TA: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Failed to follow the instructions of the supervising professor by providing to the students in Psychology section copies of quizzes and past exams from professor's class for students to review prior to exams even though student was aware of professor's security related to Psychology quizzes and exams.</li> <li>2. Misrepresented facts when student told some students in the section that the quizzes and exams they were reviewing prior to exams (materials kept in secured binders) had been</li> </ol>	Honor Council	Received permanent expulsion, prohibition on employment by the University, and stamp on transcript that student was expelled for an Honor Code violation.

OTHER
Honor Code Definitions II. C. (17)
 Other

	provided by professor for such use. 3. Entered the Psychology and Neuroscience main office copy room (which is used for the preparation and storage for examinations) and looked at exams being copied by student staff when student, TA, did not have authorization to view these exams. 4. Failed to follow the instructions of the supervising professor when student had unauthorized study sessions which student called student-led study sessions with the section of Psychology even after professor told student that all study sessions must be open to all students taking Psychology class. 5. Misrepresented facts about professor and the section of Psychology when student told some students at the end of the semester that professor had been conducting an experiment on their section of Psychology.
Fall 2009	Student asked another student to provide notes regarding extra credit papers so that student could do reports for events not attended in order to receive extra credit in Business Law.	Faculty	Received no credit for either assignment.
Fall 2009	Student attended classes without making timely financial settlement, past the seventh class day, without authorization from the dean.	Faculty	Received an email warning.
Fall 2009	Student misrepresented facts about student to professor as an excuse for behavior in class that day in Nursing.	Faculty	Received an "F" in the clinical course.
Summer 2009	None.

OTHER
Honor Code Definitions II. C. (17)
 Other

Spring 2009	Student submitted a written report of Operating Room Experience for credit in Nursing. Student also provided a copy of the report to two other students who copied major portions of the report word for word in their own reports which were submitted for credit in another section of the same course.	Honor Council	Received an "F" in the course.
Spring 2009	Student provided student's Matlab homework assignment to another student who submitted that work as his own for credit in Engineering.	Faculty	Received a warning from the professor.
Spring 2009	Student sent an email to the other students in Theater Arts offering to give student's roommate's extra stamped program for one of the required theater productions to anyone who did not have one, even though this involved a graded element of the course.	Faculty	Received a failing grade on the test.
Fall 2008	Student turned in two compositions for credit in Italian for which student had used an online translation.	Faculty	Received a "0" for the assignments.
Summer 2008	None.
Spring 2008	None.
Fall 2007	On two different occasions during exams in Economics student exchanged exam papers with another student at his request and without the authorization of the instructor, so that that student would have the same exam paper as neighbor and could copy off that other student's exam, giving that student an unfair academic advantage.	Honor Council	Received an "F" in the course and suspension for one term (spring 2008).
Fall 2007	While serving in a paid position as a Teaching Assistant for Chemistry, student offered a special help session for students in Chemistry the night before the final examination. Student charged at least some of the students	Honor Council	Immediate expulsion. No further employment on Baylor campus allowed.

OTHER
Honor Code Definitions II. C. (17)
 Other

	$150 to attend the help session. During the help session student talked to some of the students individually outside the room and offered to send a text message with some of the answers to the examination questions. In addition student did, in fact, send text message answers to some of the students in the class.
Summer 2007	None.
Spring 2007	Student contacted the publisher's Web site for additional course information.	Faculty	Per recommendation of Program Director, student wrote a letter of apology to the publisher, and was required to meet with Assistant Chair to further talk about ethics and future profession. No further punitive action was recommended.